

Sideboards and storage units

Stripe

It is a colorful or understated and extremely refined sideboard, always original because its doors are modular as desired. They are "strips" of different panels, staggered together to create movement.

SIDEBOARD WITH GRIP OF THE DOOR FROM ABOVE

The Stripe sideboard can have three or four doors to give its slatted play to be appreciated. The opening and closing system is cushioned and based on taking the door directly from the top, which is easy because its staggered slats exceed the top of the cabinet. It is valid for both Stripe sideboard and storage cabinet.

STRIPE STORAGE UNIT

The tall storage version of Stripe always has two doors where the slats extend in height. Internally, as with the sideboard, the shelves are made of glass.

FINISHES

Choose how to match your Stripe staves. Only lacquered? Only essences? A mix of materials and even colors? Take your pick! See the available finishes now.
